Friends in Barre of George E. Louis, a 1911 graduate of Goddard seminary, learn by letters from him that he recently entered the employ of the National Surety Co. of New York.

Robert Volpi of New York arrived in Barre this morning, having been called here by the death of his brother-in-law, Coriolano Granai of Granite street, who passed away last night.

Having perused the calendars and almanacs for weather forecasts, and seeing that about this time warm weather was due, and then reaching Barre in weather that laid the almanac makers in a big fib, a fat June bug was seen traveling about on a Park street porch this morning. However, he was ashamed of being seen and kept out of sight as much as possible.

Complaints received at police headquarters yesterday and to-day tend to indicate a number of Foster street boys who have engaged in the practice of stoning people's houses by night. Panes of glass have been shattered in that vicinity and the nocturnal repose of residents was disturbed Monday night and again last night. Recently the police had occasion to summons youngsters of that neighborhood into juvenile court and the authorities hint that more drastic measures will be employed if such petty violations of the law are permitted to continue.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grogan were visited at their home on Brook street last Monday night by a few of their neighbors and friends, who called to remind them that 15 years ago that day they were made man and wife. Refreshments were served and a lengthy program was carried out, with both vocal and instrumental music. Before the last number on the program was called, it was the wee small hours of the morning. On leaving, each one shook hands in a friendly sort of a way with the host and hostess, wishing them many repetitions of their anniversary.

CLAIM FAVORED ACTION.

By Vermont and Chicago Granite Co. to Woodbury Granite Co.

St. Johnsbury, May 2.—The meeting of the creditors of the Vermont and Chicago Granite Co., has been postponed to May 18 in order to permit the counsel of both sides to become better acquainted with the details of the case. A first hearing was held here Monday before E. A. Cook, referee in bankruptcy.

This is a proposed action against the Woodbury Granite company of Hardwick whom the creditors claim were favored by the defunct Vermont and Chicago company. This latter firm failed last winter for quite a large amount, but just before suspending business, paid to the Woodbury Granite company $40,000, the total amount of their indebtedness to that concern. Attorney Scott of Barre, who represents creditors in that city, and Simonds, Seales & Graves, who are acting for S. Berliner of Forest Park, Ill., claim this act on the part of the bankruptcy concern should be held void and that the amount paid the Woodbury Granite company should be returned and included in their list of assets. If action is brought, it will be taken before federal court.

Thomas Parker and Rollin Brown returned to the city yesterday from a fishing trip to Lake Champlain, a feature of which was the taking from the waters of the big pond of nearly 100 pounds of pike and pickerel. Lake Champlain fishermen have been unusually successful this year, it is reported.

Fitch R. Wiley of Park street, who has been engaged as express messenger on the Barre branch of the Central Vermont railroad for several years, has been transferred for a time to the main line, having been assigned to a run from Montreal to Boston. Mr. Wiley left to assume his new duties Monday night.

Clayton Spencer, a 1912 graduate of Goddard seminary, who is nearing the completion of a four years' course at Tufts college, Medford, Mass., has secured position as instructor in chemistry at the Holderness school in Plymouth, N. H. Mr. Spencer, who has been an assistant instructor in the Tufts chemical laboratory for the past three years, will become a member of the teaching staff at Holderness in September.

Interest in track athletics is heightened by the announcement that the track team at Goddard seminary is to have the advantage of a preliminary grilling before the state interscholastic meet in Burlington. Arrangements were completed to-day for a meet in which the seniors and a picked team from the Barre city companies will compete at the Granite City driving park Saturday, May 13.

Under the direction of Coach Kinney, excellent track material is being developed at Goddard and a fortnight after the local meet the schoolboys are expected to give a good account of themselves in the state competitions at the University of Vermont. Nearly all of the events that usually figure in a track meet are on the program for May 13.

Water meters for domestic use to the number of 150 are to be purchased by the aldermanic water committee to meet the demand created by householders who have made known their desire to change from the flat rate to the meter system of paying their water rentals. Authorization for the purchase of the meters has been obtained from the city council and as soon as an adequate supply of the devices arrives a number of orders for meter installations will be filled. The city council has taken the stand that persons who have meters installed already may not remove them without the consent of the water committee and superintendent. In several cases since Jan. 1, people who have been dissatisfied with meters have removed them without the knowledge of the water department. Hereafter, removals of the kind, without the sanction of the department, will make additional costs for the person who removes the meter.

Old times at Goddard seminary are revived in the fourth of a series of papers contributed by Dr. John A. Ridlon of Chicago in the April issue of The Goddard Record, which was distributed to subscribers to-day. Much that otherwise might never have been chronicled is set down in Dr. Ridlon's vigorous style. Reminiscences that might have been lost to future Goddard students are recorded in an entertaining manner and the author is entitled to the thanks of every reader for giving so generously of his store of Goddard memories. That the little school periodical is not retrogressing is evidenced by the wealth of miscellaneous material in the current number. Local items seem to reflect faithfully current affairs on the hill-top and some of the original literary contributions possess much merit. The alumni pages from a strong department which should be maintained at any cost.
